STOCK.—1927, the stockholders at a special meeting authorized the creation of 1,000,000 shares of a new preferred stock called 1st preferred without par value with the provision for cumulative dividends at the rate of $7.00 per year. It is retireable at $110 per share in the event of voluntary liquidation and at $100 per share on involuntary liquidation. The 1st preferred stock contains a sinking fund provision commencing June 30 1928, which provides that a sum equal to 10% of the amount of the consolidated net earnings of the company and of all of its subsidiaries for the preceding fiscal year shall be set aside, with certain allowances provided, as a sinking fund for the purchase or redemption of 1st preferred stock. It was provided that preferred stockholders be solicited to determine how many would consent to the exchange of each share of their preferred stock for 1¼ shares of the new 1st preferred stock, and if a sufficient number, in the opinion of the Board of Directors, consented to make the exchange then the new 1st preferred stock would be issued and exchanged for the old preferred stock. A sufficient number of stockholders consented to exchange their stock and the plan of exchange was declared operative, effective Oct. 1 1927. As of Nov. 21 1927 over 80% of the old stk. had been exchanged.

HERCULES POWDER CO.—ORGANIZATION.—Incorp. in Delaware Oct. 17 1912, and took over, as of Jan. 1913, per plan of disintegration, part of the properties of the E. I. du Pont de Nemours Powder Co. (V. 94, p. 1386, 1629, 1698; V. 95, p. 969). Half of the stock received by the 27 defendants in the dissolution suit is without voting power.

The stockholders of the Aetna Explosives Co. on June 6 1921 approved the sale of the entire property, assets, privileges, franchises, &c., to the Hercules Explosives Corp., in accordance with a contract dated Feb. 12 1921, made by and between J. S. Bache & Co. and Hercules Powder Co. Inc. The sale was made subject to the mortgage dated Jan. 1 1919 made to the Bankers Trust Co. and now a lien on said property, and also subject to the unpaid outstanding bonds of the Jefferson Powder Co., and all the debts, contracts, just liabilities and obligations, all of which are to be assumed by the purchaser as set forth in the contract.

The consideration was $5,400,000 in cash and $2,160,000 Pref. 7% Cum. stock of Hercules Powder Co., Inc., at par. This consideration was paid to J. S. Bache & Co. for the account of the holders of the Common stock to be distributed by the bankers as follows: For each share of Common stock the holder received $10 in cash and $1 50 in Pref. 7% Cum. stock of Hercules Powder Co., Inc., at par, and in addition thereto an escrow receipt for $2 50 in Pref. 7% Cum. stock of Hercules Powder Co., Inc., at par. The last-mentioned amount of stock was held by J. S. Bache & Co. in escrow pending the liquidation and discharge of certain liabilities of Aetna Explos. Co., but on Sept. 6 1922 the escrow receipts were exchanged for certificates of preferred stock. V. 112, p. 263; V. 115, p. 1215.

The Hercules Explosives Corp. was incorporated June 4 1921 in N. Y. with an authorized capital of 80,000 no par value shares. The company is a subsidiary of Hercules Powder Co. and was organized to acquire the assets and business of Aetna Explosives Co., Inc., which it did June 7 1921. The Aetna Explosives Co. 6% bonds, Series A, due Jan. 1 1931, and Series B, due Jan. 1 1941, which were a liability of the Hercules Explosives Corp., have been called for redemption and paid, the Series A being called on Jan. 1 1927 and the Series B on April 1 1927.

It was announced in July 1926 that the company had acquired all the stock of the Virginia Cellulose Co., Inc., which has a plant at Hopewell, Va.

HOUSTON OIL CO. OF TEXAS.—Incorp. July 5 1901 in Texas Owns the oil and gas rights on over 800,000 acres of land in Texas and Louisiana. The fee simple of the lands, together with all mineral rights thereon other than oil and gas was sold in 1915 to the Southwestern Settlement & Development Co. (not incorporated).

The stockholders in Nov. 1916 ratified the acquisition by the Federal Petroleum Co. and the Republic Production Co. of an undivided half interest in the mineral rights retained by the company and also in those sold to the Southwestern Settlement & Development Co. The Federal Petroleum Co. and the Republic Production Co. assumed the management and control of the company's oil development of the lands involved in Dec. 1916 under this agreement.

In 1901 the Houston Oil Co. contracted to sell to the Kirby Lumber Co. about 8,000,000,000 feet of standing yellow pine timber of 12 inches and upwards to be paid for semi-annually at $5 per 1,000 feet. Under an agreement effected in July 1908, the amount of timber to be cut under this contract was reduced to 6,400,000,000 feet, the minimum semi-annual payments to be five-eighths of amount specified in original contract.

The stockholders on May 12 1921 approved the terms of the adjustment of the company's claims against the Kirby Lumber Co., under which the Houston Oil Co. received in settlement $3,000,000 in 7% notes, payable semi-annually in installments of $150,000 and secured by a lien on the Kirby Lumber Co.'s timber. Compare V. 112, p. 1982.

The company in April 1925 issued $7,000,000 (out of an authorized amount of $10,000,000) 10-year sinking fund 6½% gold notes, the proceeds to provide the Houston Pipe Line Co. (all of whose securities are owned by the Houston Oil Co. and pledged with the trustee to secure this issue) with funds for the construction of a 200-mile pipe line from the company's recently developed gas field in Live Oak County, Texas, to Houston, Texas, and intermediate points. This gas pipe line was considerably extended in 1926, and now has 300 miles of main line, 132 miles of branch line and 24 miles of gathering lines.

STOCK.—Under the terms of a readjustment plan dated July 1911, the Readjustment Managers assigned to the Mercantile Trust & Deposit Co. of Baltimore, trustee, under a readjustment and voting trust agreement, all the pref. and common stock deposited with them, against which were issued Certificates of Beneficial Interest. Under this agreement, the divs. accrued to Jan. 1 1912 were separated from the pref. stock by the issue of (a) Pref. stock certificates carrying 6% divs. from Jan. 1912, which were issued for pref. stock par for par (b) accrued div. certificates which were issued for the divs. unpaid to Jan. 1 1912. All of the accrued dividend certificates have been paid off.

DIVS.—At the end of 1911 accumulated divs. on pref. stock amounted to 54%. Payments were resumed on Aug. 1 1912 with a div. of 3%, which amount has been paid semi-annually to Feb. 1927. The 54% back divs. were paid with an issue of $2,394,065 6% Accrued Dividend Certificates (See above).

FUNDED DEBT.—The 10-year sinking fund 6½% gold notes are redeemable all or part on any int. date on 60 days' notice at par and int. plus a premium of ½ of 1% for each year or fractional year from date of redemption to maturity.

The indenture provides that the co. will not create any mortgage upon any property now owned or hereafter acquired, except purchase-money mortgages and loans made in the ordinary transactions of the business, while any notes of this issue are outstanding. There will be deposited with the trustee for the benefit of these notes all the bonds and stocks of the Houston Pipe Line Co., including $7,000,000 6½% bonds, which will constitute a first mortgage on the entire 200 miles of pipe line.

The indenture will provide a sinking fund equal to 75% of the net earnings of the Houston Pipe Line Co., after deducting int. charges on the latter's 1st mtge. bonds, but before depreciation. Sinking fund to be applied to redemption of this issue by purchase in the open market, and if not obtainable, to redemption by lot. It is estimated there should be available for the sinking fund net less than $700,000 annually from date of completion of the pipe line. V. 120, p. 1754.

Readjustment Plan.—The stockholders on Oct. 3 1923 approved a plan for the readjustment of the debt and capitalization of the corporation. The plan in brief provided as follows:

The capital stock was reclassified so as to consist of $10,000,000 of prior preference cumulative 7% preferred stock and 450,000 shares of common stock, of no par value.

Holders of the old preferred stock received 1½ shares of new common stock of no par value for each share of preferred stock held, in lieu of the share so held, and of the accumulated dividends thereon. Holders of common stock received one share of new stock of no par value for each six shares of old common stock.

A new issue of $10,000,000 of prior preference stock was underwritten at 90, carrying with it for each share of prior preference stock so underwritten 2¼ shares of the new non-par value common stock. This prior preference stock, together with the accompanying common stock, was offered pro rata to the stockholders on identically the same terms as the banks had underwritten it.

Accordingly, rights were issued to the old preferred stockholders, entitling each preferred stockholder to subscribe for his proportionate share of the $10,000,000 prior preference stock, together with the 225,000 shares of common stock.

Under the plan the maturity of the bonds was extended from May 1 1932 to May 1 1942; the annual sinking fund payments postponed until May 1 1929, unless a dividend is paid on common stock (see V. 117, p. 1241), and the mortgage closed at $10,000,000, leaving in the treasury of the company $1,771,700 of bonds available for future corporate purposes. Of the amount of bonds outstanding, $1,203,000 have not as yet been presented for extension. (Compare V. 117, p. 1241, 1669, 1783.)

INTERNATIONAL PAPER CO.—Company, organized in 1898, is the largest manufacturer of paper in the world.

The stockholders on March 24 1925 ratified a contract between the company and Canadian International Paper, Ltd., which provided among other things for the acquisition by the company of all or substantially all of the capital stock and other securities of Canadian International Paper, Ltd., and the issue and exchange therefor of $5,000,000 of Com. stock, $5,370,000 of Cumul. 7% Pref. stock, and not less than $6,912,250 of new 6% 30-Year Sinking Fund Gold bonds of the company and the further payment of a large sum in cash.

Through the acquisition of the securities of the Canadian International Paper, Ltd., the company acquired indirectly all, or substantially all, of the properties formerly owned by the Riordon Co., Ltd., of Canada, purchased at a foreclosure and liquidation sale of the properties of the Riordon Co., Ltd., held in Montreal, Canada, on Sept. 8 1924, by the committee representing holders of 20-Year Sinking Fund 1st Mtge. & Ref. Gold bonds of the Riordon Co., Ltd., and by the committee representing holders of 10-Year 6% Gen. Mtge. Sinking Fund Gold bonds of the Riordon Pulp & Paper Co., Ltd.

Company also owns entire capital stock of Ticonderoga Pulp & Paper Co., Southern International Paper Co., and Gatineau Power Co., and controls Continental Paper & Bag Mills Corp.

Mill Properties.—Company and wholly owned subsidiaries own 21 paper and pulp mills located in Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, New York, Louisiana, and the Provinces of Quebec and Ontario, Canada. These mills have a daily capacity of 2,594 tons of various classes of pulp and paper for sale, now being increased to approximately 3,250 tons.

The most important plant is the Three Rivers mill located at Three Rivers, Que., which has a capacity of 700 tons of newsprint. The Kipawa Mill, a bleached sulphite plant with a present capacity of 250 tons, located in the Province of Quebec, is believed to be the most modern and efficient plant of this character in North America. The new 600-ton Gatineau newsprint mill is rapidly approaching completion and it is expected that by July 1927 the entire mill will be in opertaion.

Including the above mills International Paper Co. and wholly owned subsidiaries own and operate three ground wood mills for the manufacture of mechanical pulp, six combination ground wood and paper mills, six combination ground wood, sulphite and paper mills, one paper mill, one kraft pulp mill, one pulp and paper mill, one combination paper and soda pulp mill and two bleached sulphite mills.

Timber Limits and Water Powers.—The company and wholly owned subsidiaries own in fee 1,631,229 acres of timber lands and stumpage rights and Canadian crown timber limit leases covering an additional 10,826,413 acres. The pulp wood on lands owned in fee is estmiated to be in excess of 6,000,000 cords, while that on lands held under Canadian crown leases is estimated to exceed 39,700,000 cords.

Company with its wholly owned subsidiaries is among the largest holders of developed and undeveloped water powers on the Continent. The water powers which the company and its wholly owned subsidiaries now have in operation or under construction, aggregate 600,000 h.p., capable of being increased through further development and through utilization of undeveloped sites to about 1,400,000 h.p.

Gatineau Power Co.—Gatineau Power Co., a Quebec corporation, all of whose capital stock is owned by International Paper Co., will own in fee or hold through long-term Government leaseholds water power sites in the Province of Quebec, Canada, with an aggregate potential capacity in excess of 700,000 h.p. The company is now undertaking a development program calling for a completion by the fall of 1928 of four hydro-electric plants with an initial aggregate installed generating capacity of 397,500 h.p., of which 373,500 h.p. is on the Gatineau River. Contracts for the sale of over 90% of the primary power to be generated by the initial installations at these four plants have already been executed and the balance is expected to be readily absorbed in adjacent power markets.

KRUPP (FRIED.), LTD. (FRIED. KRUPP AKTIENGESELLSCHAFT), ESSEN, GERMANY.—HISTORY AND BUSINESS.—Fried. Krupp Aktiengesellschaft (Fried. Krupp, Ltd.) was organized in 1903 to continue the industrial enterprises theretofore conducted for nearly 100 years under the firm name of Fried. Krupp.

Company is one of the largest coal-producers in Germany and its production of coal more than sufficient for its own requirements. The mines controlled and worked are equipped with coking plants for the recuperation of by-products. Under the allotment of the "Rheinisch-Westfalisches Kohlensyndikat" (Federation of Ruhr Coal Mine Owners), the company's coal production is placed at 10,314,200 tons a year. In addition to its control of fuel, the company also controls and works important deposits of high-grade iron ore.

The blast furnace plants, comprising 10 furnaces at Rheinhausen on the lower Rhine and 4 on the middle Rhine, have a total daily output capacity of between five and six thousand tons. The steel plants are equipped mainly with open-hearth furnaces with capacities of up to 80 tons, in addition to converters and electric and crucible shops. Their total yearly steel output capacity is 2,300,000 tons.

The main plants for casting, forging, rolling and finishing are located at Essen and Rheinhausen.

The company's activities cover virtually every important steel and iron product in its various phases of manufacture. Among the products the following may be specified: Structural steel (construction of bridges and steel structures of any dimensions), rails, locomotives of all sizes and kinds, rolling stock, ship building material, forging and steel castings of largest sizes. Diesel engines, motors and motor trucks, excavators, agricultural machinery and implements, cash registers and many other kinds of machinery and apparatus. The works own facilities for transport as well by river and canal as by rail, there being besides for the circulation within the works a well-developed network of lines with corresponding rolling stock. The company at Essen also owns about 149 miles of railroad, 100 locomotives and 3,900 cars. For inland water and oversea transport, the company has its own shipping department.

NOTES.—The 7% 5-year merchandise secured gold dollar notes have been redeemed and paid June 15 1927 at 102 and int.

Relation to "Dawes Plan."—The obligations of the company with respect to the payment of reparation ("Dawes Plan") will take the form of a requirement that the company pay annually an amount not exceeding 6% upon a capital sum which has not yet been definitely determined but which in all probability will not exceed 30,000,000 gold marks, or about $7,200,000. No payment whatever is required for the first year ending Aug. 31 1925. For the second year the rate is 2½%; for the third year, 5%. For the fourth year, it attains 6% whereof 1% is as amortization of principal. As there is no provision for accelerating the maturity of the capital sum, the average annual payment required of the company for account of reparation during the life of these notes would thus not exceed $306,000. The burden of the company's liability for reparation will, furthermore, be considerably reduced, as, under a special German law, part of the annual payments in respect of industrial reparation bonds will be refunded to the obligors of such bonds by branches of German industry, banking and commerce which under the "Dawes Plan" do not themselves assume a direct responsibility for reparation payments. The liability of the company for reparation will be secured by a charge in the nature of a first mortgage upon the fixed assets of the company, but such charge does not extend to assets of the character to be pledged as security for these notes.

Neither German law nor any international engagements assumed by the German Government involve any restrictions upon the acquisition by the company of the foreign exchange requisite to permit the company to meet the external obligations evidenced by these notes.—(V. 124, p. 1520.)

STOCK.—Class A common has preference as to dividends at the rate of $4 per share per annum, cumulative from Jan. 1 1925. After these divs. are paid, dividends not exceeding $4 per share may be declared on Class B shares in any year if the payment will not reduce surplus earned after Jan. 1 1925 below $6,000,000. PHILADELPHIA AND READING COAL AND IRON CORP.—This company, incorp. in Delaware Dec. 20 1923, was formed in accordance with the final decree in the Govt. suit against the Reading Co. The latter sold to the new company all its right, title and interest in the capital stock of the Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron Co., subject to the lien of the general mortgage of Reading Co. and the Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron Co. (as modified by the final decree) for the sum of $5,600,000.

Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron Corp., pursuant to the final decree and the order modifying the final decree entered by the District Court on Dec. 4 1923, will issue from time to time 1,400,000 shares of stock without par value, being its entire authorized capital stock, to Wilmington Trust Co. of Wilmington, Del. (the trustee) as trustee under a trust agreement dated Dec. 28 1923 between Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron Corp., Reading Co., Newton H. Fairbanks and Joseph B. McCall as trustees, and Wilmington Trust Co. as trustee. The trustee will issue certificates of interest in said stock and each certificate of interest will entitle the registered owner thereof, or his assigns, upon surrender thereof accompanied by an affidavit in substantially the form required by the final decree (to the effect, in substance, that the applicant does not own any shares of the capital stock of Reading Co. and is acting in his own behalf in good faith) to receive a stock certificate for the number of shares of the capital stock without nominal or par value of Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron Corp. represented by such certificate of interest, together with all dividends (but without interest thereon) collected by the trustee in respect of said shares of stock after the date of such certificate of interest and prior to such exchange, and a dividend order or assignment for any dividends declared but not then payable in respect of said shares.

All the certificates of interest will be dated Jan. 2 1924, except as otherwise provided in the trust agreement in case of the declaration of dividends by Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron Corp. prior to the issue of all of its authorized 1,400,000 shares of capital stock.

Pending the exchange of certificates of interest for shares of stock, the trustee will deliver proxies for voting all the shares of stock held by it to Newton H. Fairbanks and Joseph B. McCall, individual trustees appointed by the District Court for the purpose, and will hold all dividends payable in respect of the shares of stock held by it until paid over to the owners of the respective certificates of interest upon exchange thereof for shares of stock as aforesaid. If at any time after July 1 1926 any of the certificates of interest shall remain outstanding, the final decree provides that the Court in its discretion, after a hearing upon such notice to holders of certificates of interest as it may direct, may order the shares of stock of Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron Corp. represented by said certificates of interest to be sold and the proceeds distributed to the registered owners of such certificates of interest.

Of the total of 1,400,000 no par shares authorized, there had been issued to Wilmington Trust Co., trustee, as of Dec. 31 1925, 659,867 shares.

The Wilmington Trust Co. advises that as of Dec. 31 1925, of the above 659,867 shares, there had been issued 574,665 shares to holders of certificates of interest who had filed affidavits as required by the decree.

ROYAL DUTCH CO. FOR THE WORKING OF PETROLEUM WELLS IN NETHERLANDS INDIES.—ORGANIZATION.—Incorp. in The Hague, Holland, in 1890, with a capital of 1,300,000 florins ($522,600). Through its subsidiaries it is now the largest international producer and distributor of mineral oil and its by-products of Europe. V. 107, p. 2243. Started as a local enterprise of the Dutch East Indies. After 1900 developed rapidly. In 1902 entered the international field and in conjunction with the "Shell" Transport & Trading Co. of London (which see) and the de Rothschild (Paris) group, founded the Asiatic Petroleum Co. as a distributing concern. Subsequently absorbed the principal other oil producing enterprises in Dutch East Indies and amalgamated its interests with those of the "Shell," the combined assets of both being turned over to two new companies, viz., the "Bataafsche Petroleum Co. and the Anglo-Saxon Petroleum Co. The "Royal Dutch" holds 60% in these two concerns (the "Shell" 40%); also 12½% of the outstanding ordinary "Shell" shares. The two interests so combined have since then acquired exclusive or controlling interests in important oil fields in Rumania, Russia, Egypt, the United States (Oklahoma and California), Panama, Venezuela and Mexico.

On Dec. 31 1925 the company owned the following shares: Fl. 180,000,000 Bataafsche Petroleum Maatschappij; Fl. 115,200,000 Anglo-Saxon Petroleum Co., Ltd., Fl. 25,200,000 Asiatic Petr. Cy., Ltd., Fl. 11,121,528 Shell Transport & Trading Cy., Ltd., Fl. 209,739,358 Shell Union Oil Corp. and Asiatic Petr. Cy. (Del.), Ltd., Fl. 22,220,352 Soc. "Astra Romana", Fl. 9,705,862 Mexican Eagle Oil Co., participation in various companies, Fl. 119,482,304.

In Nov. 1921, a plan was formulated for the merger of the company's "American interests" with the Union Oil Co. of Dela., for details of which see statement of Shell Union Oil Corp. below.

STOCK.—The com. shares have a par value of Fl. 1,000 (say $402 each, but the company issues sub-shares of Fl.100 (say $40 20) each. For trading purposes here, Dutch shares of 100 Florin par value were deposited with the Equitable Trust Co., N. Y., against which were issued three certificates for each share deposited. This gives a nominal par value of $13.40 to each "American certificate."

SIEMENS & HALSKE (A. G.) SIEMENS SCHUCKERTWERKE (G. m. b. H.).—The business of the Siemens & Halske A. G. was founded, in 1847 by Werner von Siemens. The Siemens group covers the whole field of electrical manufacture, and is subdivided into several companies. The Siemens & Halske A. G. is the parent organization. Its scope of business includes the automatic and manual telephone, the telegraph, the signalling and electro-medical apparatus and all kinds of radio equipment. The principal associated company is the Siemens Schuckertwerke B.m.b.H., over 50% of whose stock is owned by Siemens & Halske A. G., the balance of the stock being owned by the closely allied Elektrizitaets Aktiengesellschaft, formerly Schuckert & Co. The Siemens Schuckertwerke G.m.b.H manufactures all kinds of electrical machinery and appliances for lighting, power, traction and electro-chemical purposes, also wires and cables. The Siemens & Halske A. G. also owns 40% of the stock of the Osram Co., a German incandescent lamp factory, employing about 20,000 hands. The Siemens Schuckertwerke G.m.b.H. owns 67% of the stock of the Austrian Siemens Schuckertwerke A. G. with works at Vienna, at Pressburg and Mueglitz in Czechoslovakia, and at Budapest. There are a number of other subsidiary companies for the manufacture of electric carbons, porcelain, glass, paper and other material required for use in the companies' principal products.

The concern has outside of Germany and Austria 82 branch offices situated in most of the countries of the world. About 40% of its production is exported. The Siemens group consists of 26 factories situated at various points in Germany. The main plants are located at Siemensstadt, near Berlin, and in Nuremberg.

BONDS.—In Jan. 1925, Dillon, Read & Co., Marshall Field, Glore, Ward & Co., New York; Union Trust Co., Cleveland, and Central Trust Co. of Illinois, Chicago, sold $10,000,000 bonds as follows: $5,000,000 3-year 7% secured sinking fund gold bonds, due Jan. 1 1928, at 99 and int., to yield 7.37%; $5,000,000 10-year 7% secured sinking fund gold bonds, due Jan. 1 1935, at 96½ and int.

Dated Jan. 1 1925. Interest payable J. & J. Coupon gold bonds in denoms. of $1,000 and $500, registerable as to principal. Principal, interest and sinking fund payable at the office of Dillon, Read & Co., New York, in U. S. gold coin of the present standard of weight and fineness, without deduction for any German taxes, present or future. Central Union Trust Co. of New York, trustee; Deutsche Kreditsicherung A. G., Berlin, German agent of trustee.

All of the outstanding 3-year 7% bonds due Jan. 1 1928, and $132,000 of 10-year 7% bonds due Jan. 1 1935 will be redeemed on Jan. 1 1927.

Security.—The bonds are a joint and several obligation of the two companies, the Siemens & Halske A. G. and the Siemens Schuckertwerke G.m.b.H. These bonds will be secured by the actual ownership of salable merchandise, title to which will be held by a trustee under the provisions of the German law for the benefit of the bondholder. The method of taking title to the merchandise and of handling the security during the life of the bonds will be the same as that used by the Netherlands Government to its credit to German industry. In 1920 the Netherlands Government arranged to advance to German industry as a whole 140,000,000 guilders (about $56,000,000) for a period of ten years. The Netherlands Government insisted that these credits should be secured as much as possible and in such a way that the total amount of the credit should always be covered by merchandise having a current market value at all times substantially in excess of the amount borrowed. Under the German laws the actual ownership of the commodities passes to the trustee, who is in a position to dispose of them without reference to the company, if and when foreclosure of the mortgage is called for. The Netherlands Government thus has ownership through the medium of a trustee of quick assets in the form of salable merchandise the value of which exceeds at all times the amount of the credit granted.

For the purpose of handling these government credits there was organized in Germany the "Treuhandverwaltung Fuer das Deutsch-Niederlaendische Finanzabkommen" (Trustee Administration for the German-Dutch Finance Agreement) which passes on and grants the individual credits. For the purpose of handling the merchandise there was also organized by most prominent members of German industry the "Deutsche Kreditsicherung A. G., Berlin" (German Securities Trustee Co., Berlin) having for it's purpose the safeguarding of foreign financing for the lender. The trustee company has a thorough and elaborate system of segregating the commodities held as collateral security and permanently controls the maintenance of the necessary values. It also supervises the insurance of the merchandise and satisfies itself as to the adequacy thereof. The trustee thus safeguards the above-mentioned Netherlands Government credit, and will in the same way and to the same extent safeguard the collateral security given for this loan.

The Siemens companies will transfer to the German Securities Trustee Co., as the German agent of the Central Union Trust Co., New York, trustee, stocks of salable merchandise, such as brass, copper, aluminum, zinc, steel, iron plates, dynamo plates, lumber, oils and rubber, as well as suitable half-finished and finished goods. The value of these stocks, which under the German law will be actually owned by the trustee's German agent and which will be kept open to permanent inspection by the trustee's German agent, will at all times exceed the amount of bonds outstanding by at least 66 2-3%. The merchandise will be constantly revalued by the trustee's German agent at the lowest market prices prevailing. The companies will obligate themselves to insure the stocks serving as collateral security against all risks in accordance with the requirements of the trustee's German agent.

Sinking Fund.—A sinking fund is provided for the 10-yr. bonds sufficient to retire through call by lot $132,000 of bonds each six mos. at 102 & int., the balance of less than 50% of the issue to mature at 102 and interest. The 10-year bonds are callable as a whole, at the option of the companies, on any interest date, at 104 and interest on July 1 1925, the call price being reduced by ½ of 1% each 12 months until July 1 1929, from which date until maturity the call price remains 102 and interest.

DEBENTURES.—Dillon, Read & Co., Mendelssohn & Co., Amsterdam; Marshall Field, Glore, Ward & Co. and International Acceptance Bank, Inc., in Sept. 1926 sold $24,000,000 25-year 6½% sinking fund gold debentures, with warrants for contingent additional interest. The bonds, offered in the form of 50% paid allotment certificates were priced at 99 and int.

Dated Sept. 1 1926; due Sept. 1 1951. Denom. $1,000 c*. Principal and int. (M. & S.) payable at office of Dillon, Read & Co., N. Y. City, in United Stages gold coin of the present standard or collectible, at the option of the holder, in London at the office of J. Henry Schroder & Co., in pounds sterling, or in Amsterdam at the offices of Mendelssohn & Co., Amsterdam and Nederlandsche Handel Maatschappij, in guilders, at the buying rate for sight exchange on New York on the date of presentation for collection. Redeemable with all unmatured warrants (except the warrant maturing May 1 next following the redemption date), as a whole, or in part by lot, on 30 days' notice, on any int. date, at 110 and int. on or before Sept. 1 1936, and at 102 and int. thereafter prior to maturity. Principal and int. payable without deduction for any German taxes, past, present or future. Central Union Trust Co. of New York, American trustee; Deutsche Kreditsicherung A. G., German trustee.

Sinking Fund.—A sinking fund is to be provided, commencing March 1 1927, sufficient to retire each 6 months 1½% of these debentures theretofore issued, by purchase of debentures with all unmatured warrants at not over 100 and int. (or of allotment certificates at proportionate prices), unexpended balances reverting periodically to the companies. The sinking fund is to be reduced in respect of debentures represented by allotment certificates in proportion to the uncalled balance of the allotment price.

Warrants.—To each debenture will be attached warrants for contingent additional interest, entitling the holder thereof to receive in United States gold coin on May 1 of each year, from 1927 to 1936 inclusive, $3.35 1-3 for each 1% (and a proportionate sum for each fraction of 1% by which the average per cent. of cash dividends (to be determined as provided in the indenture) declared upon the stocks of Siemens & Halske A. G. and Siemens-Schuckertwerke G. m. b. H. for the preceding fiscal year shall have exceeded 7%.

Allotment Certificates.—Cos. will issue in the first instance allotment ctfs., in bearer form, evidencing payment of 50% of the allotment price of the debentures represented thereby. The remaining 50% may be called in one or two installments (no call to be for less than 25%) on 60 days' published notice, on or before Sept. 1 1929, and shall, if not theretofore called, be due on said date. Holders of allotment certificates may make payment in full on any interest date on or after Sept. 1 1927, and will thereupon receive the debentures represented thereby. Holders of allotment certificates who default in any payment thereon will at the option of the companies forfeit all rights thereunder, including all prior payments. Holders of allotment certificates will be entitled to receive interest on the debentures represented thereby only in proportion to the amount of the allotment price paid thereon, but will be entitled to receive the entire amount of contingent interest payments in respect of the warrants.—(V. 123, p. 1644.)

The U. S. The large refineries at Bayonne, Baltimore and Parkersburg W. Va., were retained. Segregation of Operating Companies.—In 1927 the board of directors of the Standard Oil of N. J. decided on the policy of the dissolution of the company's business into separate corporate units to further the interests of closer integration of operations and increased efficiency (V. 125, p. 2826). When this plan has been completed the Standard Oil Co. of N. J. (the present company) will be the holding company and will own the capital stock of the various operating companies.

In Aug. 1927 the Standard Oil Co. of N. J. and incorporated in Delaware was formed to take over from the New Jersey company the business and assets of its various wholly-owned subsidiary companies. Among these is the Carter Oil Co. and the Tuscarora and Oklahoma Pipe Line companies. The capital stock of the Delaware corp. is $200,000,000 (par $100), which will be exchanged for the stock of the present operating companies. The other large subsidiaries, such as the Humble Oil & Refining Co., the Standard Oil of La., the Imperial Oil, Ltd., and the International Petroleum Co., of which the Standard Oil of N. J. owns only a controlling interest, will not be affected and will continue to operate as independent units.

The Standard Shipping Co., which was created some time ago under the laws of Delaware to take over the marine business of the Standard Oil of N. J., has a capital stock of $40,000,000 par value, all of which will be owned by the Standard Oil of N. J.

The Standard Oil Development Co., an existing subsidiary, will conduct the technical research and development activities.

A new subsidiary will be formed to take over the foreign business of the Standard Oil of N. J. The companies to be included in the new subsidiary number about 18, now organized in Europe and South America. As yet no announcement has been received on this plan.

Description of Stocks of New Company.

(a) Prior Preference Stock.—Is entitled to cumulative dividends from July 1 1926 at the rate of 7% per annum before any divs. are paid on the class A stock or the common stock. Red. at any time in whole or in part at 110 and divs. In event of liquidation or dissolution holders of the prior preference stock will be entitled to receive $100 per share and divs. before any distribution is made on the class A stock or the common stock.

An annual sinking fund is to be provided for sufficient to retire annually 5% of the maximum par value of prior preference stock at any time outstanding. Payments to the sinking fund are to be made or provided for, if earnings or earned surplus are available, before any dividend payment on the class A stock or the common stock, but are not to be cumulative. Moneys in the sinking fund will be applied to the purchase of prior preference stock at not exceeding $110 per share and divs., or to the redemption by lot of prior preference stock.

(b) Class A Participating and Convertible Stock.—After full provision for the dividend on the prior preference stock and for sinking fund requirements the class A stock is entitled to receive dividends up to $4 per share per annum, in priority to any payment of dividends on the common stock. Such dividends are non-cumulative.

After dividends up to $4 per share per annum on the class A stock, the class A stock is entitled to participate equally with the common stock in dividends paid (so that each share of class A stock will receive as additional dividends the same amount as paid in dividends on each share of common stock) until the class A stock shall have received an additional amount of $2 per share. [The participating feature is so adjusted that the dividends payable on the stocks offered for each share of preferred stock of the present company (including the class A participating dividend) amount to $8 per year, 1% in excess of the dividend rate on the present preferred stock.] Provision will be made so that, in case of any issue of additional common stock as a stock dividend, the aggregate amount thereafter payable as dividends on the common stock shall not, until the class A stock shall have received the additional amount of $2 per share, exceed the amount which would have been so paid if such additional stock had not been so issued.

The class A stock is convertible at any time at the option of the holder into common stock, share for share. Stock so converted shall not be reissued. In case of liquidation or dissolution, of the new company, after payment of $100 a share together with accrued unpaid dividends on the prior preference stock, two-thirds of all amounts distributable will be distributed among the holders of class A stock provided, however, that if any Class A stock is retired, the portion so to be distributed among the holders of the class A stock shall be proportionately decreased. The remainder of all amounts so distributable shall be distributed among the holders of common stock.

(c) Common Stock.—Subject to the participation rights of the class A stock, the common stock is entitled to receive all amounts declared in dividends in any fiscal year after payment if, or provision for, the full dividends and sinking fund on the prior preference stock and a dividend of $4 per share on the class A stock for such year.

x This amount includes $1,823,000 bonds of old company remaining unexchanged in Dec. 1926.

The authorized but unissued stock amounting to 856,250 shares will, so far as necessary, be held for the following purposes: 67,440 shares for conversion rights of the 10-year 7½% secured notes, 507,160 shares for conversion rights of the proposed new bonds, 145,576 shares for conversion rights of the 5-year class "B" notes and the remaining 136,074 shares for other corporate purposes.

Distribution of Stock to Stockholders of Old Company.—(a) Preferred stockholders in the old company who assented to the plan received 5 shares of common stock of the new company (represented by v. t. c.) for each one share of pref. stock of the old company held by them.

(b) Common stockholders of the old company who assented to the plan received one-tenth of a share of common stock of the new co. (represented by v.t.c.) for each one share of common stock of the old co. held by them.

Voting trustees are: F. W. Allen, Samuel F. Pryor, Theodore H. Wickwire and Richard B. Young.

New Money—Subscription by Stockholders of Old Company—Subscription Rights.—In order to provide $2,515,000 additional cash capital, $2,515,000 5-year 7% class "A" notes and 440,125 shares of common stock (represented by v.t.c.) of the new company were offered to stockholders of the old company on the following terms:

Each pref. stockholder of the old company who assented to the plan had the right to subscribe $20 on account of each share of pref. stock of the old company which he held, for which he received $20 principal amount of 5-year 7% class "A" notes and 3½ shares of common stock (represented by v.t.c.) of the new company.

Each common stockholder of the old company who assented to the plan had the right to subscribe $2 25 on account of each share of common stock of the old company, which he held, for which he received $2 25 principal amount of 5-year 7% class "A" notes and 63-160 of a share of common stock (represented by v.t.c.) of the new co. (i. e., on the basis of $20 principal amount of 5-year 7% class "A" notes and 3½ shares of common stock represented by v.t.c., for each $20 so paid).

Adjustment with Creditor Banks.—Creditor banks which held $3,639,400 of overdue notes of the old company accepted in exchange therefor an equal face amount of 5-year 6% class "B" notes of the new company.

Description of 5-Year Class "A" and Class "B" Notes.—The 5-year 7% class "A" notes and 5-year 6% class "B" notes shall be issued under a trust indenture or trust indentures, and the notes of both or either classes may be issued in registered or coupon form or both, and in such denominations as may be hereafter determined. Class "A" notes shall be callable on any int. date, all or part, on 30 days' notice at 102 and int.; at or before 2 years from their date at 101 and int. for the next year, and at par and int. thereafter. Class "B" notes shall be callable on any int. date, all or part, on 30 days' notice at the same prices as the class "A" notes; but class "B" notes shall not be so called while any of the class "A" notes are outstanding unless such class "A" notes shall previously have been called for redemption or unless such class "A" notes are called for redemption at the same time. Class "B" notes shall be convertible into common stock of the new co. (or v.t.c. therefor) on the basis of 40 shares of com. stock of new co. for each $1,000 of notes.

Mortgage Bonds and Adjustment with 1st Mtge. Bondholders.—First mtge. bondholders were requested to exchange their bonds (through the medium of a bondholders' committee) for an equal principal amount of bonds of a new issue bearing the same int. rate (viz., 7%) and the same maturity date (viz., Jan. 1 1935). The new bonds shall be given an additional right not contained in the old 1st mtge. bonds, viz., the right to convert the same into common stock of the new co. (or v.t.c. therefor) on the basis of 40 shares of stock for each $1,000 of bonds. New bonds shall be red. in any year at the same premiums at which the present 1st mtge. bonds are red. for such year.

The 1st mtge. 7% sinking fund gold bonds ($30,000,000 auth.) are callable as a whole or in part as follows: 104 to Dec. 31 1926; 103 to Dec. 31 1928; 102 to Dec. 31 1930; 101 to Dec. 31 1932; 100 thereafter. Sinking fund, commencing in 1923, will retire over 50% of the present issue before maturity (compared reorganization plan above).

The 10-year 7½% secured gold notes are convertible at any time into common stock, in case of conversion on or before Sept. 1 1927 on a basis of $20 per share, plus a premium of $1 per share (payable by the noteholder to avoid the issuance of fractional shares) in case of conversion on or before Sept. 1 1924; thereafter plus a premium of $1 per share for each 12 months or portion thereof elapsed after Sept. 1 1923. After Sept. 1 1927 convertible on basis of $25 per share, plus a premium of $1 per share for each 12 months or portion thereof elapsed after Sept. 1 1928 to and incl. Sept. 1 1931, and thereafter plus a premium of $5 per share. Red., all or part by lot on or before Sept. 1 1925 at 107½, thereafter and on or before Sept. 1 1928 at 105, and thereafter at 102½ (plus int.). V. 115, p. 1219.

The 800,000 shares of common stock outstanding were issued toGeneral Motors Corp. in payment for stock of the General Motors Truck Corp., and the 150,000 shares of 7% cumul. non-voting pref. stock were distributed as a dividend, pro rata, to the holders of 600,000 shares of Class "B" stock outstanding. The Class "B" stock and the common stock have the same voting power per share. The common stock and the Class "B" stock will participate, share and share alike, in the net earnings and dividends after cumulative dividends have been paid on the pref. stock, except that for a period of three years, in the event that dividends declared and paid are less than 75 cents a share on the aggregate total of 1,400,000 shares of the outstanding common stock and Class "B" stock combined, then the Class "B" stock shall have cumulative preferential rights as to dividends up to 75 cents a share. Following the said 3-year period, if by reason of the 3-year provision the common stock has not enjoyed cumulative dividends per share equal to dividends declared and paid on the Class "B" stock, then the common stock for a succeeding period of three years will have similar preferential rights as to dividends up to the point where the cumulative dividends received per share on each class of stock has been equal from the date of issuance of the common stock.

Transportation Act of 1920.

(Concluded from Page 8.)

tion. It is proposed to connect the two properties by using trackage of the Pennsylvania RR. (V. 124, p. 1354.)

A plan for the unification of the Northern Pacific Ry. and the Great Northern Ry. was announced on Feb. 14 1927. This plan discloses that it contemplates, subject to the approval of the I.-S. C. Commission, direct operation of the lines of railroad of these companies and of the Spokane Portland & Seattle Ry., through lease of their properties to a new operating company which will also exchange its stock, share for share, for stock of the Northern Pacific and Great Northern railways. (See V. 124, p. 1063 and 2424.)

The application of the Reading Co. for authority to acquire control of the Lehigh & New England RR. was denied by the I.-S. C. Commission in a decision made public Mar. 19 1927 (V. 124, p. 1430 and 1417), holding that the proposed lease of the property for 999 years would not be in the public interest. Final disposition of the Lehigh & New England RR., control of which has been sought by several of the Eastern lines, is a matter that can well be postponed, the Commission said, until it can have before it fuller and better information in regard to the larger plans that may be proposed for the consolidation of the Eastern railroads.

The I.-S. C. Commission in March 1927 dismissed the applications of the Detroit & Ironton RR. for the acquisition of control by it of the Detroit Toledo & Ironton and the Toledo-Detroit roads on the technical ground that it involves a "consolidation into a single system for ownership and operation" not yet authorized by the law. The Commission declared it unnecessary to discuss the collateral issues raised by contentions of the applicants and interveners. The plan, which was opposed by the minority stockholders, offered the latter $104 a share for their common stock holdings. The Commission, in its findings, said "that there is discrimination against the minority appears from the fact that they are given no choice but to accept the cash equivalent of the value placed upon the stock in the manner described above." (V. 124, p. 3491.)

On the ground that proposals for railroad consolidations should not neglect provision for including appropriate connecting short lines, Examiner Ralph R. Molster for the I.-S. C. Commission, in a report to that body, and made public June 2 1927, recommended that the Commission deny the application of the New York Central RR. for authority to acquire control by long-term lease of the properties of the Michigan Central and "Big Four" railroads, which it already controls by overwhelming stock ownership (V. 124, p. 3271). Early in September 1927 the New York Central RR. filed with the Commission a petition for a further hearing on the application for authority to lease these lines for the purpose of offering further testimony concerning the financial, traffic, operating or other conditions affecting short lines connecting with the lines involved in the proposed leases. Hearings on the new application will be held Jan. 9 1928.

A recommendation that the I.-S. C. Commission deny the application of officers and directors of the Baltimore & Ohio RR., the New York Central RR. and the New York Chicago & St. Louis RR. for authority to serve also as directors of the Wheeling & Lake Erie Ry. in which the three trunk lines had each purchased a large stock interest in the early part of 1927, was made Nov. 16 1927 by C. V. Burnside, Assistant Director of the Commission's Bureau of Finance, and Examiner O. D. Weed, in a report made public by the Commission. The Commission has also been advised in the Examiner's report that the first three companies had proceeded without proper authority in acquiring control of the Wheeling & Lake Erie Ry. (V. 125, p. 2727).

On April 5 1926 the late Senator A. B. Cummins introduced a bill entitled "A Bill to Provide for the Consolidation of the Carriers by Railroad and the Unification of Railway Properties in the United States," which was accompanied by a report by him explaining, among other things, why the above bill was introduced and reported upon instead of S-1870. Among the changes proposed by this bill (S-3840) are the following: (1) It would eliminate the requirement in the Transportation Act that securities of a consolidated system should not exceed the combined valuations of its constituent properties as found by the I.-S. C. Commission; (2) it would postpone for 5 years the period during which the Commission is required to draw up plans for consolidations, leaving them voluntary, subject to the approval of the Commission in the meantime; (3) it would provide that the test of whether a railroad has net operating income in excess of 6%, subject to recapture, should be the average net operating income for 3 consecutive years and not year by year; (4) it would cause recaptured earnings to be distributed among railways earning less than 5%.

On April 12 1926 a bill was introduced by Representative James S. Parker, Chairman of the House Committee on Inter-State and Foreign Commerce, entitled "A Bill to Promote the Unification of Carriers Engaged in Inter-State Commerce and for Other Purposes." This bill differs from the present law and Senate Bill, among other features, in that it permits voluntary consolidations by carriers. It does not require the adoption and promulgation of a consolidation plan by the Commission, but provides that, upon the expiration of 7 years from its passage, it shall be the duty of the Commission to report to Congress the extent to which unifications have taken place in accordance with it, and, "in the light of the conditions then existing," its recommendations as to further proceedings. It omits the provision of the Senate Bill, which proposes the use of recaptured earnings as an inducement to encourage consolidation.

The repeal of the law requiring the I.-S. C. Commission to formulate a plan for the consolidation of the railroads of the country into a score or more systems was asked of Congress by the Commission in its 39th annual report submitted on Dec. 10 1925. At the same time it was suggested that the Transportation Act be so changed as to expedite the natural grouping of the carriers into a smaller number of systems, the Commission retaining the power to approve or disapprove the mergers undertaken. The majority of the members of the Commission, according to the report, believe that "results as good and perhaps better are likely to be accomplished with less loss of time if the process of consolidation is permitted to develop under guidance of the Commission" in a normal way. The Commission's recommendations with respect to consolidation follow:

That paragraphs (2) to (6) inclusive, of Section 5 of the Inter-State Act be amended (a) by omitting therefrom the existing requirement that we adopt and publish a complete plan of consolidation; (b) by making unlawful any consolidation or acquisition of the control of one carrier by another in any manner whatsoever, except with our specific approval and authorization; (c) by giving us broad powers upon application and after hearings to approve or disapprove such consolidations, acquisitions of control, mergers, or unifications in any appropriate manner; (d) by giving us specific authority to disapprove a consolidation or acquisition upon the ground that it does not include a carrier or all or any part of its property which ought to be included in the public interest and which it is possible to include upon reasonable terms; (e) by modifying sub-paragraph (b) of paragraph (6) so that the value of the properties proposed to be consolidated can be more expeditiously determined; and (f) by providing that in the hearing and determination of applications under Section 5, the results of our investigation in the proceeding of our docket known as No. 12964, Consolidation of Railroads, may be utilized in so far as deemed by us advisable.

Provisions of Transportation Act

The following indicates some of the distinctive features of the Transportation Act of 1920. This act was published in full in the "Chronicle" of Feb. 21 1920, p. 715 to 732, with an amendment in V. 110, p. 2250.

RATES MUST BE ADJUSTED SO AS TO YIELD A FAIR RETURN.—The Commission is from time to time to determine and make public what percentage of the aggregate property value constitutes a fair return thereon. Such percentage must be uniform for all rate groups or territories which may be designated by the Commission. In making such determination it shall give due consideration, among other things, to the transportation needs of the country and the necessity (under honest, efficient and economical management of existing transportation facilities), of enlarging such facilities in order to provide the people of the United States with adequate transportation: Provided, That during the two years beginning March 1, 1920, the Commission shall take as such fair return a sum equal to 5½% of such aggregate value, but may, in its discretion, add thereto a sum not exceeding ½ of 1% of such aggregate value to make provision in whole or in part for improvements, betterments or equipment, which, according to the accounting system prescribed by the Commission, are chargeable to capital account.

The Commission in a decision handed down in May, 1922, as noted on page 3 (inside of second column) stated "that on and after March 1, 1922, a fair return upon the aggregate value of the railway property will be 5¾%."

Pending the completion of its valuation of the railway properties in the United States, the Commission is required to make tentative valuations of the several roads as a basis for rate-making. In July, 1920, the Commission placed a tentative value on all the railroads in the United States of $18,900,000,000 as against a book value of $20,040,572,611.

DISTRIBUTION OF EARNINGS IN EXCESS OF 6% —Net railway operating income in any year in excess of 6% of the value of the property shall be utilized as follows: (a) One-half of such excess shall be placed in a Reserve Fund maintained by the railroad; (b) the remaining one-half shall go into a General Railroad Contingent Fund (see also page 3 of this publication).

REFUNDING OF CARRIERS' INDEBTEDNESS TO THE UNITED STATES.—The net indebtedness of each carrier to the United States for additions or betterments may be funded for a period of ten years (or less at option of company) from the termination of Federal control, with interest at 6% per annum subject to the right of the carrier to anticipate the payment of the whole or any part of the indebtedness. Any remaining debt to U. S. to be evidenced by 6% notes running one year or less.

CONSOLIDATION OF RAILROAD PROPERTIES—STOCK CONTROL, &c.—The Inter-State Commerce Commission is directed to prepare and adopt a plan for the consolidation of railroad properties into a limited number of competing systems, and consolidations are authorized when in harmony with the plan as adopted and approved by the Comission. See remarks above and plans as proposed in 1921, V. 113, p. 1429 to 1431, and 1950.

The Commission shall also pass on any proposed measures for the control of one road by another by consolidation, lease, stock ownership or otherwise. In any consolidation the total amount of outstanding stock and bonds of the consolidating company shall not exceed the value of the consolidated properties as determined by the Commission.

JOINT USE OF TERMINALS.—The Inter-State Commerce Commission whenever in its opinion there exists an emergnecy may require such joint or common use of terminals, including main-line tracks for a reasonable distance outside of such terminals, as in its opinion will best meet the emergency and serve the public interest.

INTER-STATE COMMERCE COMMISSION MAY INITIATE RATES.—In the exercise of its power to prescribe just and reasonable rates, the Commission can initiate as well as modify and establish rates.

CONTROL OVER SECURITY ISSUES.—The Inter-State Commerce Commission is given exclusive control over the issuance of all railroad securities, except notes maturing in less than two years when the total issues of said notes of the railroad amounts to less than 5% of its capitalization. See regulations, V. 111, p. 1814, 1049, 587

Federal Control—Standard Return.

The proclamation of President Wilson assuming control of the roads was dated Dec. 26 1917. See V. 105, p. 2509; V. 106, p. 35; V. 108, p. 2081.

CONTRACTS FOR GOVERNMENT CONTROL—RENTAL PAYMENTS.—The form of contract which the Government executed, with slight variations, with the railroads, will be found in V. 107, p. 1157, 956.

The Act of Congress approved March 21 1918 (cited in V. 106, p. 1421) authorized the President "to agree with and to guarantee' to any carrier "that during the period of such Federal control it shall receive as just compensation an annual sum (herein called standard return) for each year . . . not exceeding a sum equivalent as nearly as may be to its average annual railway operating income for the three years ended June 30 1917. In a few cases for special reasons extra compensation was granted. Disputes however, arose, and when Federal control was terminated Feb. 29 1920 there still remained a number of roads concerning which the question of compensation, whether the standard return or a larger sum, was still to be determined.

Out of the aforesaid compensation as supplemented by the company's non-operating income, including interest and dividends on any bonds or stock owned, and other outside items each company was required to pay all Federal (war) taxes, interest and other fixed charges, and also any dividends allowed on their capital stock.

Increases and Decreases in Railroad Rates.

During the period of Government control operating costs had been so enormously increased that the roads fell far short of meeting their expenses and charges, leaving a heavy deficit for the Government to make good. With the return of the roads to private control, therefore, it hence became necessary to arrange for increasing rates for the transportation of both passengers and freight. The extension of the guaranty period for six months after the roads had been turned back to their owners was for the purpose of allowing time in which to make the adjustment. Just as the Inter-State Commerce Commission was ready to announce its decision, there came the decision of the RR. Labor Board on July 20 1920 awarding increases in wages aggregating $625,000,000 or more per year. The roads had asked for increases in rates to yield additional revenue of $1,017,766,000 per annum. Following the award of the Labor Board the roads petitioned the Commission for further additions to revenue in the amount of the increase. On July 31 1920 the Commission having placed a valuation of $18,900,000,000 upon the railroad properties, against a book value of $20,040,572,611, undertook to allow them 6% upon the property investment, which would mean a total of $1,134,000,000 with which to cover the increased cost of wages and supplies and to pay for improvements, &c. (compare V. 111, p. 653, 549, 459, 347 to 350, 329). The decision of July 1920 increased:

(a) Freight Rates.—40% in the East, 25% in the South, 35% in the West and 25% in Mountain-Pacific territory. (b) Passenger Rates—20%, the amount asked by the railroads, or about ⅓ of 1 cent additional per mile. (c) Pullman Rates—A surcharge to the roads of 50% on rates. (d) Excess Baggage Rates—20% advance. (e) Milk Tariffs—20% advance. (f) Coastwise and inland steamship lines and electric railway companies were permitted to increase their freight rates in proportion to the increases of the railroads in the same territory. (V. 111, p. 848.)

These increases in rates were expected to add $1,500,000,000 to the yearly revenues of the roads. But, unfortunately, a sudden decline in traffic caused an alarming falling off in railway operating income, notwithstanding the higher rates received. (V. 113, p. 2155.) It then became necessary to reduce both rates and wages.

On Nov. 17 1921 the Railroad Executives, in anticipation of a wage cut of 10%, announced a 10% reduction in rates on farm products for all parts of the country, except New England (and in New England also it was voluntarily accepted by most of the railroads), the old rates to be restored at the end of six months in case the expected lowering of railroad wages had not been accomplished. (V. 113, p. 2154, 2470, 2786.) This move followed numerous and important rate reductions on many products since Aug. 26 1920, when the general advance mentioned above was ordered. The 10% reduction in rates on farm products it was estimated would save shippers about $55,000,000.

In May 1922 the Inter-State Commerce Commission ordered a horizontal reduction of 10% in rates, effective July 1 1922. For full text of decision see "Chronicle" of May 27 1922, pages 2317 to 2329. In the case of grain, grain products and hay in Western territory the Commission had the previous autumn ordered a freight rate reduction of 16½%, which went into effect Jan. 1 1922. That reduction was allowed to stand without change, the 10% cut not in any way affecting it.

On April 17 1923 reductions were permitted in freight rates to meet Panama Canal competition on certain heavy commodities to Pacific Coast and intermediate points. The reductions apply to all Western lines, including those like the Atchison and Southern Pacific, that reach the coast by the Southern route, and the Union Pacific that goes by the Central route, as well as the Northwestern roads. Some time before the Inter-State Commerce Commission had refused to permit those lines to charge a higher rate to intermediate than to Pacific Coast points. Further reductions by the same lines were ordered to become effective June 1 1923. The latter ran as high as 50%, it was stated, on some commodities. (V. 116, p. 2089, 1014.)

The Inter-State Commerce Commission, for the second time in five years, denied on March 13 1926 the application of Western transcontinental railroads for authority to depart from the long-and-short-haul provision of the Inter-State Commerce Act. The carriers had sought permission to reduce freight rates on long hauls without applying the cuts to intermediate movements. The roads' petition involved reductions on 47 commodities, moving from origin territory west of the Indiana State line to Pacific Coast terminals, the lower rates having been sought to cope with Eastern manufacturers who can ship through the Panama Canal. (V. 122, p. 1558.)

Railroads operating through the Southwest and the lower Mississippi Valley were ordered by the Inter-State Commerce Commission on March 15 1923 to make a general revision of commodity freight rate schedules, effective June 30 1923. (V. 116, p. 1138.)

H. C. Hall, formerly Chairman of the Inter-State Commerce Commission, in a letter dated May 28 1924 to Senator Smith, Chairman of the Senate Committee on Inter-State Commerce, answering an inquiry made by the latter as to rate reductions, stated that "it has been estimated that from July 1 1922 to the end of 1923 the shippers and consumers of the country have paid nearly $800,000,000 less in charges for transportation of property than would have accrued if no reductions had been made below the basis established on Aug. 26 1920." "Of this," said Mr. Hall, "it has been roughly estimated that more than $175,000,000, or about 22% of the total, represents a decrease in freight charges on livestock and the products of agriculture." The following is taken from Chairman Hall's letter:

Excerpts from Letter of Chairman H. C. Hall of the Inter-State Commerce Commission to Senator Smith, Chairman of the Senate Committee on Inter-State Commerce, Dated May 28 1924.

Since July 1 1922 there have been no general reductions over the country as a whole or throughout any of the major rate groups. Many reductions have been made in individual cases, but they have been relatively unimportant as compared with those made previous to and including the general reduction of July 1 1922. Readjustments of rates on some 30 commodities in the Southwest, involving both increases and reductions, but not designed to affect the carriers' aggregate revenues, became effective Nov. 27 1923. Other commodity rates in that territory are now in the course of similar revision.

It has been estimated that from July 1 1922 to the end of 1923 the shippers and consumers of the country have paid nearly $800,000,000 less in charges for transportation of property than would have accrued if no reductions had been made below the basis established on Aug. 26 1920. Of this, it has been roughly estimated that more than $175,000,000, or about 22% of the total, represents decrease in freight charges on livestock and the products of agriculture. The latter constitute approximately 15% of the tonnage.

In the attached statement, marked "Appendix I" [given below] will be found a list of important general rate reductions between Oct. 26 1921 and July 1 1922.

The attached statement marked "Appendix 2" [given below], shows representative rates now in effect on lumber, base bullion, packing-house products sugar and iron ore as compared with the rates in effect on Aug. 26 1920. The percentage relationship of the present rates to the Aug. 26 1920 rates is also shown.

APPENDIX 1.

Important General Rate Reductions Between Oct. 26 1921 and July 1 1922, Inclusive.

1. A 10% reduction in rates on a products of farm, garden, orchard and ranch—other than grain, hay and their products, and livestock—which became effective about Jan. 1 1922.

2. A reduction of 10% in rates on livestock between any two points, both of which are located west of the Indiana-Illinois State line or the Mississippi River, where such rates wer 50 cents per 100 pounds or less. This reduction became effective about Jan. 1 1922.

3. Reductions in rates on grain, hay and their products made by the order of the Commission effective about Jan. 21, between any two points located west of Lake Michigan or the Indiana-Illinois State line and east of the Rocky Mountains; on wheat, hay, and their products, such as flour, cornmeal, bran, alfalfa meal, &c., 13%; on corn, oats, barley, and otherso-called coarse grains, and their products, 21%.

4. Reductions ranging from 1 to 15% on forest products from Southern, Southeastern and Southwestern producing territory to points in Eastern Trunk Line and Central territories, including points in Illinois and Wisconsin. These reductions became effective about May 10 1922 and were the result of the Commission's opinion in the Southern Hardwood Traffic Association case, Docket No. 12995.

5. Material reductions in rates on coal, both bituminous and anthracite, from Lake Superior docks to points in Minnesota, and also in South Dakota on and east of the Missouri River. These reductions were made effective about April 1 1921, and were the result of the Commission's decision in the Holmes & Hallowell case, Docket No. 6194.

6. General reductions in rates under the Commission's opinion in Reduced Rates, 1922, Docket No. 13293. These reductions became effective July 1 1922 and applied to all classes and commodities. The general effect was to make a reduction of 10% in the rates of June 30 1922, except in cases where prior thereto and subsequent to the general increase of Aug. 26 1920 reductions had been made by that per cent or more. Generally speaking, no rates were to be higher than 90% of the Aug. 26 1920 rates, and where reductions had been made but not to that basis, such further reductions were required to be made to bring the rates to that level.

The Inter-State Commerce Commission on July 17 1924 definitely refused further rate reductions on grain, grain products and hay, sought by 10 States of the Mississippi and Missouri Valley cereal growing region under the leadership of the State of Kansas. The Commission held that the financial status of the carriers did not justify the step, while, in general, it held that the financial situation of the Western grain farmers was showing a slow improvement, relieving them of the necessity for the reduction. (V. 119, p. 288.)

On July 10 1926 a reduction of 3 cents per 100 lbs. was made effective by the Minneapolis & St. Louis RR. Co. on grain moving from southwestern points, milled in transit at Minneapolis and southern Minnesota mills, and moving east via Peoria. The rate on grain from Kansas City to Minneapolis is 17½ cents per 100 lbs., and formerly, when milled in transit at Minneapolis, paid an arbitrary of 11 cents per 100 lbs. to Peoria over the inbound rate; it was in this arbitrary that the reduction of 3 cents was made, from 11 to 8 cents. On Aug. 9 1926 six other roads made effective a like reduction on grain from Missouri River points and beyond, applying the reduced rate to Chicago, Milwaukee and other Eastern gateways on shipments for points east of the Illinois-Indiana line. The grain crop in the Southwest in 1926 was unusually heavy.

Following the reduction in the rate on Southwestern grain came the further announcement by the Minneapolis & St. Louis RR., on July 27 1926, followed by the "Soo" Line on July 31 of a proposed reduction of 6 cents per 100 lbs. from the Twin Cities and Duluth-Superior on grain and grain products originating in northwestern Minnesota, North Dakota, Montana and a few points in South Dakota, shipped by way of Peoria, in the case of the first carrier, to territory east of Buffalo and Pittsburgh, and by way of Sault Ste. Marie and the Canadian Pacific RR. to points in New England in the case of the "Soo" Line. (V. 123, p. 665, 940, 1204.) On Feb. 17 1927 the Commission decided against these reductions. (V. 124, p. 1305, 1463.)

Under the Hoch-Smith resolution passed by Congress on Jan. 30 1925, the Inter-State Commerce Commission was directed to make a thorough investigation of the rate structure of common carriers. A petition was filed late in April 1925 by the Western railroads for an increase in revenues in their territory. The petition was not in the usual form of a proposal for an increase in rates, and made no suggestion as to how the increased revenues should be porvided, but asked that the Commission, "in pursuance of the powers invested in it and the duties imposed upon it by the Inter-State Commerce Act, after due investigation, issue the necessary order or orders which will result in yielding to the carriers operating in the Western district a net rate of return of not less than 5¾%." Based on the results for 1924, when the Western roads had a net railway operating income of $378,080,991, or 3.87%, on their property investment, it would require an increase in revenues of approximately $182,000,000 to bring the return up to the $560,000,000 that would mean a 5¾% return. As the freight revenues of the Western lines in 1924 were $1,655,000,000,000, this would be equivalent to a general advance in freight rates of about 11%. The petition showed that not only was the general advance in rates allowed by the Commission in 1920 insufficient to produce the fair return contemplated by the Act, but that reductions in freight rates made since have prevented them from realizing it as the result of increased traffic. This petition followed the statement which had been filed by the Western carriers of their views in relation to the Commission's general rate structure investigation under the Hoch-Smith resolution, in which statistics were presented to show that the present situation of the Western lines calls for advances in their rates, rather than reductions. It was signed by 66 roads, of which six—the Chicago Milwaukee & St. Paul, Chicago & Alton, Denver & Salt Lake, Minneapolis & St. Louis, San Antonio Uvalde & Gulf, and Trinity & Brazos Valley, are in the hands of receivers. (V. 120, p. 2500, 656; V. 119, p. 2969.) See also annual report of I.-S. C. Commission published in the "Chronicle" of Dec. 11 1926, page 2996.

The 5% general increase in freight rates sought by the Western railroads was denied in an opinion of the I.-S. C. Commission made public July 17 1926, the Commission in its conclusions stating that "it is quite clear from the evidence that so far as the major portion of the Western district is concerned, no financial emergency exists." The Commission at the same time denied the petition of security holders of Northwestern carriers for an additional 15% horizontal increase in rates in Western trunk line territory. The Commission also held that the earnings of the roads in the West as a whole had not been such as to warrant at this time a general downward revision of rates on farm products including livestock, and held to be unnecessary the creation of separate rate groups which had been proposed for the Southwest, taking in Arkansas, Oklahoma and Texas, southern Kansas, Missouri south of the Missouri River, and that part of Louisiana west of the Mississippi. A separate group had also been suggested, to be known as the Mountain-Pacific-Southern group, which would have been created by dividing the present Mountain-Pacific group. (V. 123, p. 416, 417, 2079.) Application had been made on May 24 1925 by the Western railroads, including the Northwest group, for permission to increase rates on a straight percentage basis. This increase would have had the effect of a 10% or 11% advance in freight rates from the existing levels (see above). Subsequently the receivers of the Chicago Milwaukee & St. Paul Ry. presented a plan devised by Mark W. Potter, former Inter-State Commerce Commissioner, and now a receiver for that property, calling for a 5% freight rate increase to all Western carriers, but providing for pooling of the additional revenues derived from the increase, and redistribution thereof in such a way as to provide, in effect, more than 5% for the so-called weaker roads, and less than 5% for the stronger systems. (See also table showing the application of the Potter plan to railroads operating in Western territory in V. 121, p. 36.) In August 1925 some of the Western carriers announced their willingness to accept an increase in rates of 5%, instead of the 11% previously sought (see V. 121, p. 802, 1310). Hearings were opened in Chicago on Sept. 8 1925. Briefs in support of the urgency of a 5% increase in freight rates were filed by the Western carriers with the Commission in March 1926 (V. 122, p. 1715). A supplemental brief in answer to arguments opposing the increase sought was filed on April 24 1926 (V. 122, p. 2449).

A downward revision of freight rates on fertilizer and fertilizer materials between points in Southern territory was directed in an order issued by the I.-S. C. Commission on Aug. 17 1926. Railroads were ordered to put the new scale of rates into effect by Jan. 1 1927. (V. 123, p. 941.)

An entire revision of the interstate class rates and many commodity rates in the Southwest, on a comprehensive system of scales based largely on distance, was ordered by the Inter-State Commerce Commission in its decision made public on April 23 1927 (decided April 5) in the cases combined under the title Consolidated Southwestern Cases. The decision includes not only Oklahoma and Texas but Arkansas and Louisiana west of the Mississippi River and parts of Kansas and Missouri. It includes revision of rates from and to grouped points in the States beyond the Missouri and Mississippi rivers and east of the Rocky Mountain States. Practically all commodities, principally manufactured articles, are affected, but including no basic commodities or raw materials, such as grain, sand, lumber or the like. The new rate structure consists of 10 class and 9 commodity scales. Additional scales may be inserted as found desirable or necessary. (See "Railway Age" of April 30 1927, pages 1325 to 1332.)

New England Roads Allowed a Higher Pro Rata.

Because of the relatively disadvantageous position of the New England group of roads, a readjustment of the basis for division of through rates was authorized by the Inter-State Commerce Comm sion on Feb. 14 1922, effective March 1 1922, by which the New England roads other than the Bangor & Aroostook were given an increase of about 15% in the amount coming to them from the division of revenue derived from most classes of traffic interchanged with the lines west of the Hudson River. (V. 114, p. 702, and V. 111, p. 1942; V. 112, p. 744, 987.) Compare remarks in Oldham merger plan, V. 113, p. 1950, 1951. In the suit brought in April 1922 against the Commission to prevent the carrying out of this increase as discriminatory, the United States Supreme Court on Feb. 19 1923 handed down a decision upholding the order of the Commission. (V. 114, p. 917, 1253.)

The I.-S. C. Commission on July 11 1927 made public a report on further hearings in the New England divisions case, in which it deals with requests made by the New England lines for additional increases on certain traffic and also with petitions filed by Western and Southern lines asking that they be not required to contribute to the increased divisions of the New England lines and of certain other lines asking that their divisions be increased. The Commission now finds that since 1922 the trend of earnings in New England has been more favorable than in the remainder of the Eastern group and that the record affords no basis for giving greater weight to the financial needs of the New England lines than was given at the time of the amended order (see "Railway Age" of July 16 1927, page 121). Petitions for a modification of the Commission's order in the above case was denied in October 1927. The order became effective Oct. 1 1927. (See also V. 125, p. 342 and 1010.)

Changes in Railroad Wages.

On July 20 1920 the U. S. RR. Labor Board, acting under Transportation Act of 1920, granted wage increases to the 2,000,000 railway employees of the United States, retroactive to May 1 1920, which the Board estimated would add approximately $600,000,000 to the pay-roll, but which the Association of Railway Executives estimated at $625,921,085, or 21%, and which appears to have aggregated possibly $720,000,000. Increases aggregating about a billion had been demanded. See V. 111, p. 347 to 350, 459, 460; V. 110, p. 2252, 2254, 2624,

On July 1 1921, after careful investigation, the U. S. Labor Board permitted the railroads, aside from the so-called short lines (which are in a class by themselves), to make a wage decrease of about 12%, as against the aforesaid wage advance of May 1 1920. It was estimated that this would effect a saving in the yearly pay-rolls of the roads of $375,000,000. (Compare V. 112, p. 2143 to 2150, 2377; V. 113, p. 33.) While the decrease was duly put in effect, the question whether it should be accepted or should be opposed by a strike was referred by the leaders of the 16 railroad unions to their local organizations (V. 113, p. 149), which, it appears, were quite generally in favor of a strike, both to recover the lost wages and prevent further unfavorable changes in wage or labor conditions.

When, however, it came to the actual declaring of a strike only the four trainmen's brotherhoods and the switchmen's union were prepared to take this step in the face of a strongly adverse sentiment on the part of the public and the Federal Government, and even in the case of these unions, on a number of roads, notably the Pennsylvania Eastern Lines, the necessary 66 2-3% vote was lacking (V. 113, p. 1326, 1706, 1718, 1730 to 1738).

The strike was scheduled to begin in the various sections of the country Oct. 30 to Nov. 5 1921 (V. 113, p. 1735), but it was called off on Oct. 27 1921 after a hearing before the Labor Board, in view of the vote by the latter that it would not take up the matter of wage decreases until all the questions relating to national rules and regulations had been disposed of by it. (V. 113, p. 1849 to 1852, 1943.)

In 1921-22 the national rules were rewritten by the Labor Board on a somewhat more satisfactory basis for the shop crafts and maintenance of way men, clerks and station employees, signal men, supervisors, firemen and oilers, train dispatchers, railway express employees, &c., but not for the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, Order of Railroad Conductors, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and Switchmen's Union of North America. The efforts of the railroads to get these latter bodies to agree to a further wage reduction of about 10% and to submit to various changes in the rules failed in April 1922.

The rules as revised for the other unions in general added from one to two hours to the eight hours that must be worked at the regular pro rata rate before the punitive extra pay becomes operative.

Following a test suit brought by the Atchison Topeka & Santa Fe Ry., the Federal District Court at Chicago in April 1924 handed down a decision upholding the nine-hour day ruling of the I.-S. C. Commission for yardmasters. This order affected between 8,000 and 9,000 yardmasters on roads in all parts of the United States, who formerly worked 12 hours per day (V. 118, p. 2040).

Reductions in wages of shopmen, maintenance of way men, freight car men, signal men, clerks, &c., aggregating approximately $135,000,000 per annum, were announced by the United States Railroad Labor Board in May and June 1922, effective July 1 1922. V. 114, p. 2432, 2541, 2784.

Following the wage reduction, the shop craft organizations went on strike July 1 1922, and for three months thereafter the railroads of the country were seriously handicapped in their operations. V. 115, p. 139. On July 17 1922 about 8,000 stationary firemen, engineers and oilers also were called out. President Harding made strenuous efforts to get the strikers to return to work and held numerous conferences with representatives of the unions and with railway executives. But his proposals for the settlement of the strike of railway shopmen, though accepted Aug. 2 1922 by the employees, fell through, because the carriers rejected the recommendation that the men return to work with their former seniority and other rights unimpaired (V. 115, p. 611, 612). Later in the month, however, many of the roads made individual agreements with their men on the basis of the so-called Baltimore plan or other separate arrangements, and where this was not done the strikers in large numbers gradually drifted back, so that by the end of September 1922 the strike ceased to be much of a disturbing influence. V. 115, p. 2123, 1596, 1282, 1283. In February 1925, long after the strike had ceased of all influence, the shopmen's union declared the strike ended on all roads except the Pennsylvania and Long Island railroads.

A temporary injunction restraining the officials of the Federated Railway Shop Crafts from interfering in any way with the operation of the railroads was granted at Chicago Oct. 5 1922 by Federal District Judge James H. Wilkerson, and later was continued in force. This was an additional aid in breaking up the strike. (V. 115, p. 1495, 2123.) On May 1 1923 leaders of the strike of railroad shopmen abandoned their case in defense against this injunction and announced that their principal contentions in the case had been upheld. (V. 116, p. 2086.) A final decree making permanent the temporary injunction was entered July 12 1923 by Judge Wilkerson. The decree affected about 400,000 railroad employees and officers of the shop crafts concerned in the strike. (V. 117, p. 169.)

The threatened strike of 400,000 maintenance of way men had meanwhile been stayed, E. F. Grable, President of the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and Railway Shop Laborers, having reached an agreement with the Railroad Labor Board to withhold any strike order until the Board could arrange for a rehearing (V. 115, p. 139, 395). After the rehearing the Labor Board (Oct. 14 1922) granted the employees, represented by the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and Railway Shop Laborers, an increase, effective Oct. 16 1922, of 2 cents an hour over the reduced schedule put in force on July 1 1922 (V. 115, p. 1790).

An increase totaling over $3,000,000, together with the eight hour day and time and-one-half for overtime, was granted to approximately 65,048 members (freight employees and common laborers) of the Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks, Freight Handlers, Express and Station Employees, effective March 1 1923. V. 116, p. 898; V. 115, p. 2446, 2343.

The United States Railroad Labor Board on March 10 1923 refused to reopen the case under which 11,000 telegraphers on eleven Western roads suffered wage reductions (said to total $1,500,000 annually) in a decision handed down by the Board in December 1922 (V. 115, p. 2755), and which became effective Jan. 1 1923. (V. 116, p. 1138.) Increases in wages affecting about 5,500 telegraphers and station agents and aggregating approximately $364,432, were, however, granted by the Board in Nov. 1923 on a number of roads. (V. 117, p. 2400.)

On April 24 1923 the Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way employees, &c., filed a request with the Labor Board for a return to wages in effect prior to July 1 1921 (V. 116, p 1856). The petition affected 28 railroads and 175,000 employees. On June 30 1923 the Board remanded the case back to the roads for individual settlements. Failing this, the Board on Dec. 3 1923 awarded a wage increase of 1 to 2 cents an hour, retroactive to June 1 1923, to approximately 22,612 maintenance of way men of the Boston & Maine RR., the Fort Smith & Western Ry., the Louisville & Nashville RR., the Louisville Henderson & St. Louis Ry., the Nashville Chattanooga & St. Louis Ry., the San Antonio Uvalde & Gulf RR., and the Trinity & Brazos Valley Ry. These roads had failed to reach individual settlements with their men. A number of other carriers involved in the original controversy had settled. (V. 117, p. 2508; V. 116, p. 1969.)

In Oct. 1923 the firemen, trainmen, conductors and engineers, represented by the Big Four Brotherhoods, asked for wage increases averaging approximately 12½%. This increase, it was computed, would cost the railroads about $100,000,000 additional a year and bring wages up to the schedules in effect as of May 1 1920. (V. 117, p. 2848, 1740, 1524, 750, 636.)

The first settlement growing out of negotiations with the railroad brotherhoods over wage increases asked in Oct. 1923 was announced by the New York Central RR. on Jan. 22 1924, when the road made known that it had reached an agreement with engineers and firemen on practically all divisions and subsidiary lines providing for an increase in wages of approximately 5% and changes in certain working conditions. The agreement, which was to run for one year, affected, it was estimated, about 15,000 men, including engineers, firemen, hostlers and hostler's helpers. This settlement was then used by the labor organizations as a basis for attempted agreements on all American roads. The increase, when applied to the 160,000 engineers and firemen employed by all Class I. railroads, would cost, it was figured, about $25,000,000. (V. 118, p. 394, 627.) An increase of approximately 5%, affecting 44 Western railroads and about 50 subsidiaries, was granted on April 8 1924 to approximately 80,000 conductors and trainmen. (V. 118, p. 2003.)

The U. S. Railroad Labor Board handed down a decision on Oct. 21 1923 awarding increases of 1 to 2 cents an hour to clerks, station forces, dock, warehouse and platform freight handlers and similar employees of 65 carriers. The opinion found that 29 carriers and employees of the class involved had negotiated agreements increasing pay for some of the groups, but that there was no uniformity in the agreements. The employees affected by the decision were represented by the Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks, freight handlers, express and station employees, by the Brotherhood of Railway Station Employees, and by the International Longshoremen's Association. (V. 117, p. 1849.) This decision followed close upon another denying an increase to signalmen. The wage increases asked by signalmen on 45 carriers ranged from 13 to 23 cents an hour. This class of employees had been granted an increase of 13 cents an hour by decision No. 2 in July 1920. On July 1 1921 their wages were cut from 6 to 8 cents an hour and a further decrease in July 1922 of from 5 to 6 cents an hour brought the rates of pay to approximately what they were under the Federal Administration prior to decision No. 2. The Board decided in denying the request that the cost of living and other elements entering into consideration of the case had not changed sufficiently since the last decision of 1922 to justify an increase (V. 117, p. 1741).

Since March 1 1923 wage increases of one kind or another have been made by many individual roads to their employees. The Pennsylvania RR. on March 12 1924 increased wages of about 22,000 engineers, firemen, hostlers and hostler helpers by 5%, retroactive to Jan. 16 1924: the Pennsylvania RR. also granted a wage increase of about 6% to 32,000 conductors, baggagemen, brakemen and switch tenders. Early in 1924 an increase of about 5% was granted to engineers and firemen of the following roads: The Pittsburgh & West Virginia Ry., the New York Chicago & St. Louis Ry., the Erie RR., the Chesapeake & Ohio Ry. and the New York New Haven & Hartford RR.; this increase followed close upon the announcement of the New York Central RR. of similar wage adjustments, referred to further above. Increases of 5% were also granted during 1924 to conductors and motormen of a number of roads, including the New York New Haven & Hartford RR., the Louisville & Nashville RR., the Lehigh Valley RR. and the Southern Ry. A wage increase, ranging from 30 to 36 cents a day to conductors, switchmen and brakemen, was granted on June 2 1924 by the Chesapeake & Ohio Ry. Co., retroactive to May 1. This action was in line with an increase given to engineers and firemen. Wage increases amounting to 6½% for all yardmen and trainmen, retroactive to May 1 1924, were granted by the Texas & Pacific Ry. These illustrations might be multiplied almost indefinitely.

The United States Railroad Labor Board, in a decision on Jan. 19 1925, granted wage increases of from 1 to 2 cents an hour, involving an annual expenditure of approximately $3,700,000, to some 87,000 employees of forty-three railroads. The classes affected were clerks, freight handlers, express and station employees, janitors, elevator operators, truckers, stevedores and storers (V. 120, p. 414). This wage increase followed an advance of 5% granted by the Railroad Labor Board at the beginning of December 1924, to more than 75,000 members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen. Under a decision of the United States Railroad Labor Board, 2,528 conductors and trainmen were awarded wage increases totaling $283,183 a year, effective from Feb. 1 1925. This latter increase, it was stated, affected 17 railroads, which were not included under the agreement reached through the efforts of the train service brotherhoods in 1923-24. The award was understood to be on the basis of the New York Central's 5% increase. The railroads affected included the Denver & Rio Grande Western System and its subsidiary, the Rio Grande Southern, the Ann Arbor Railroad Co. and the Bangor & Aroostook Railroad Co. (V. 120, p. 661.)

Effective Oct. 16 1926, the Pennsylvania RR. advanced the wages of its shopmen (about 43,000 mechanics, helpers and apprentices) 3 cents an hour. Among other increases in shopmen's wages were those announced by the Baltimore & Ohio RR. of 2 cents an hour and time and one-half for overtime, by the Chicago & Alton RR. of 1½ cents per hour (effective July 15 1926) and by the Norfolk & Southern RR. of 2 cents an hour. Wage increases affecting 40,000 shopmen and amounting from 1 to 3 cents an hour were granted during Nov. 1926 by Western railroads, including the Chicago Rock Island & Pacific Ry., the Atchison Topeka & Santa Fe Ry., the Chicago Burlington & Quincy RR., the Chicago & Eastern Illinois Ry., the Fort Worth & Denver City Ry., the Union Pacific RR. the Wabash RR., the Illinois Central RR., the Great Northern Ry. and the Chicago & Alton Ry. Wages of mechanical department employees were advanced generally in the Eastern district—the New York Central RR. and the Pennsylvania RR. advanced shopmen 3 cents an hour; the Reading RR. increased mechanical employees 2 and 3 cents an hour; the Baltimore & Ohio RR. increased shop wages 2 cents an hour, as did the Lehigh Valley, Delaware Lackawanna & Western and the Delaware & Hudson. The Reading also increased the pay of its telegraphers 2 cents an hour (V. 123, p. 2735). In Dec. 1926 shopmen of the Chicago & North Western RR. and of the Chicago Milwaukee & St. Paul RR. received wage increases of 3 cents an hour; shopcraft employees of the Southern Pacific Co. received an advance in pay of 1 cent an hour.

General managers of all the principal railroads of the country were served on Feb. 1 1926 with wage demands by representatives of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and the Order of Railway Conductors (V. 122, p. 705). Early in March 1926 the Eastern, Western and Southern roads declined to accede to the demand for increased wages. Committees were appointed by the Eastern and Western railroad executives to represent them in the wage conferences. The total increases demanded by the trainmen and conductors amount to between $1 and $1 64 per day, depending on the class of service and the class of employee. This represented an increase of about 20% over the existing wages received by the trainmen and conductors. (V. 122, p. 1506, 1559.)

An increase of 7½% in wages was granted to conductors and trainmen of the Eastern railroads by the Board of Arbitration on Dec. 2 1926. This increase, which became effective Dec. 1 1926, affected 89,000 employees and added about $15,000,000 to the annual operating expenses of the roads. An increase of approximately 19% had been sought which would have involved an addition to the payrolls of something like $38,000,000 a year. This award was the first to be made under the Watson-Parker Railroad Labor Act. Arbitration proceedings provided for under the Act were resorted to when it was found that the issue in dispute between the railroads and the trainmen could not be settled through the United States Board of Mediation, created under the Watson-Parker Act (V. 123, p. 2850, 1057, 803, 283).

A wage increase of 7½% was granted on Aug. 3 1927 to about 30,090 engineers of steam and electric railroads in Eastern territory (see V. 125, p. 736). This latter increase became effective Aug. 1 1927 for one year.

The United States Board of Mediation on Feb. 8 1927 announced the settlement of wages and rule differences between the Order of Railway Conductors, the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and the railroads of the southeastern area. The adjustment granted about 22,000 employees an increase of 7½% on the then existing wage basis and involved 20 railroads. This decision became effective as of Feb. 1 1927 (V. 124, p. 879, 1169). On June 20 1927 the Board of Mediation, under an arbitration award, increased the rates of pay for firemen, hostlers and helpers of the 12 larger railroads in the Southeastern territory by amounts ranging up to 40 cents an hour (V. 125, p. 47).

The Board of Mediation on June 25 1927 awarded a 7½% increase in wages to yardmen on 55 Western roads, retroactive to March 1 1927, but denied the demands of the conductors and trainmen for a similar raise. The Board held that the earnings of trainmen in the Western territory were shown to be more than in either the Eastern or Southern district before the 7½% increases went into effect in those areas. It was also pointed out by the Board that to grant the increase sought by the conductors and trainmen would, according to the contention of the carriers, "ultimately cost $83,000,000 per year in increased wages, though only about $12,000,000 is involved in the present arbitration. If this contention is correct, other things remaining equal, the effect would be to reduce the earnings of the Western railroads available for betterment and the like below 3%." (See V. 125, p. 46.) The Board further called attention to the testimony introduced which showed that the rate of return on Class 1 carriers in 1926, based on investment in road and equipment, including materials, supplies and cash, was: Western district, 4.36%; Eastern district, 5.47%; and Southern District, 6.23%. Based on the tentative valuation of the I.-S. C. Commission as of 1919, with subsequent additions to road and equipment, the rate of return was: Western district, 4.70%; Eastern, 5.60%, and Southern, 6.76%. A renewal of the request for an increase in pay was filed with the 55 roads in the Western territory on Nov. 1 by the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and the Order of Railway Conductors. The new request suggests an increase in daily wage rates ranging from about 8½% to approximately 19%. The present wage agreement ends March 1 1928 (V. 125, p. 2763).

It was announced on June 16 last that the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Enginemen and Firemen had abrogated their working agreement which had been in force for about 14 years (V. 125, p. 47).

Early in Feb. 1927 a wage increase of 7½% was awarded to the firemen and enginemen of 27 major railroads and 32 subsidiary lines east of Chicago and north of the Ohio River. This agreement, which affected about 31,000 employees, was for one year and was retroactive to Feb. 1 1927 (V. 124, p. 879, 735; V. 123, p. 2851). In March 1927 clerks, station employees and freight handlers employed by the New York Central Lines, East and West, were granted an increase in pay of 6% (V. 124, p. 1306). Freight clerks and handlers of the New York New Haven & Hartford RR. and of the Boston & Maine RR. were granted an advance in wages of 5 cents per hour (V. 124, p. 1307). The Boston & Maine RR. also increased the pay of its telegraphers nearly 4%. Signalmen of the Southern Pacific Co. were granted an increase in wages of 6%. In April the Pere Marquette Ry. announced an advance averaging 7½% in the wages of its enginemen, trainmen, switchmen and hostlers, while the clerks, baggage handlers and station employees of the Pacific lines of the Southern Pacific Co. were awarded increases ranging from 2 to 7 cents an hour (V. 124, p. 2379).

Other wage increases in 1927 were made by the following roads: In June to maintenance of way men of the Louisville & Nashville RR., about $6 a month; in August to maintenance of way employees ofthe Chicago & North Western Ry. (V. 125, p. 1010); to clerks of the Wabash Ry., an average monthly increase of $7.14; clerks and freight handlers of the Illinois Central RR. and the Yazoo & Mississippi RR., 5% (V. 125, p. 1132); in Nov., to clerks and freight handlers of the Chicago & North Western Ry., from 4 to 7%, effective Nov. 1 (V. 125, p. 2763).

The Pennsylvania Railroad and the U. S. Railroad Labor Board.

The United States Railroad Labor Board asserted in an opinion on June 27 1923 that the Pennsylvania RR. system (which had ignored the decision of the Board in refusing to acknowledge the elected representatives of the clerks' organization) "has persisted in such violation in contempt of the unanimous decision of the U. S. Supreme Court," which sustained the Board's jurisdiction. The excoriation of the Pennsylvania sustem resulted when the railroad refused to deal with the elected representatives of the clerks' organization as officials representing employees' organization, although the railroad was ready to consider them as individuals. (V. 116, p. 2693, 2953; V. 117, p. 1849). Judge Dickinson in the Federal District Court at Philadelphia, Pa., on Dec. 21 1923 dismissed the suit of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, Freight Handlers and Station Employees of the Pennsylvania RR. to compel the company to recognize their delegates in conferences on wages and conditions, on the ground that the Federal Court had no power to enforce the decisions of the U. S. RR. Labor Board and that the only way the Board's mandates could be carried out was in the "court of public opinion." The Board itself, Judge Dickinson declared, had no power to execute its own orders, "and no power has been delegated to the courts to have the decrees carried out." In conclusion the opinion said:

> The judgment it [the Labor Board] may render may be acceptable to neither party, but each has the legal right to accept it or refuse to follow it. If the parties refuse acquiescence all that the Board can then do is to give publicity to its ruling, leaving the parties to their willingness to adjust the dispute under the guidance and perhaps the stress of public opinion, influenced, or it may be aroused, by the opinion of the Board.

On the same grounds, Judge Dickinson in the Federal District Court at Philadelphia on Feb. 5 1924 dismissed the $15,000,000 suit brought by the shopmen's organization against the Penn. RR. system. (V. 117, p. 2849; V. 118, p. 627.) Five months later (in July 1924) the United States Circuit Court of Appeals at Philadelphia dismissed equity suits brought by System Federation 90 of the Federated Shopcrafts and the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks against the Pennsylvania RR. for enforcement of wage increase and working condition decisions of the United States Railroad Labor Board. The suits were dismissed on the ground that the Federal Courts have no jurisdiction in such matters.

The United States Supreme Court in March 1925 decided that roads are not required to submit to the United States Railroad Labor Board for arbitration disputes with employees and that the roads could determine who shall be recognized as representing their employees in labor disputes.

Equipment Trust Agreements of Jan. 15 1920.

Equipment trust agreements were executed early in 1920 by some 80 leading railroad companies with the Director-General of Railroads and the Guaranty Trust Co. of New York as trustee, covering approximately $323,000,000 worth of new rolling stock, built and building. This rolling stock was ordered by the United States Railroad Administration during the period of Federal control of railroads and has been allocated to the railroad companies named below and accepted by them. (Compare V. 109, p. 1668, 1955, 2406.)

The notes, while issuable from time to time as equipment is delivered to the roads, are all dated Jan. 15 1920, payable, both principal and interest, in gold of present standard. Each issue will mature in 15 equal installments on Jan. 15 in each year, 1921 to 1935, both inclusive, and will bear interest at 6% per annum, payable semi-annually, July 15 and Jan. 15 at the office of the trustee in New York City. They will be subject to redemption at the option of the maker prior to maturity at 103 and interest on any interest date after 60 days' notice, but only as entire issues.

The War Finance Corporation, in a statement issued by Managing Director Eugene Meyer Jr., on Jan. 22 1922 announced that the Director-General had addressed a letter to all railroads of which the U. S. Treasury still held issues of equipment trust obligations no part of which had yet been sold by it, asking [in order to increase the salability of its holdings] that he be permitted to subordinate to the remainder of the issue [which remainder he might then sell] not alone the last five maturities, 1931 to 1935, or any one or more of them, but such portion of the maturities of any year as he might determine. The official statement said:

The amended clause will read as follows:

"'Eleventh: Upon request of the holder, or holders, of all the notes which by their terms shall be due and payable in any year, and upon presentation of such notes for that purpose, the trustee shall stamp thereon, or upon such part thereof as said holder, or holders, may designate and request, the following words:

"'For value received and as an inducement to purchases of unstamped notes, the holder of this note has caused the same to be stamped pursuant to Article Eleventh of the Equipment Trust Agreement mentioned in the note, and, as provided in said Article Eleventh, the unstamped notes shall be payable in preference and priority to the stamped notes out of any moneys received or collected by the Trustee under said Equipment Trust Agreement, upon enforcement of its rights or remedies in case of a default of the carrier.'

"For the present, it is the purpose of the Director-General, upon the execution of the supplemental agreements, making the amended clause operative, to make sales of railroad equipment trust obligations under an arrangement, to subordinate, on the part of the Government, approximately 33 1-3% of the principal amount of each maturity; and the Director-General will be prepared to sell 66 2-3% of issues of equipment trust obligations, unsubordinated, at par and accrued interest to date of delivery. The Railroad Administration will thus retain the one-third subordinated part of all serial maturities."

Loans, &c., Made by Federal Authorities Under Control Act, Act of 1920, &c.

During the Federal control period from Jan. 1 1918 to Feb. 29 1920, and the guaranty period of 6 months from March 1 to Aug. 31 1920, and as a result of the financial operations called for by the Control Act of 1918, the Transportation Act of 1920 and the Act incorporating the War Finance Corporation, advances to a large amount were made to the railroads by the U. S. Treasury, the Director-General and the War Finance Corporation on account of additions and improvements, the funding and refunding of loans and in the case of the Boston & Maine for reorganization purposes.

The securities acquired on account of such advances by the U. S. Treasury and still held by it on recent dates were:

(3) Partial payments to carriers as to which a certificate for final payment has not been received, as stated above	1,758,011

Cost to Government of Federal Control of Railroads $1,696,000,000.

According to the report of James C. Davis, former Director-General of Railroads, submitted to President Coolidge on Dec. 14 1925, the total cost to the Government of Federal control of the railroads (during 32 months), including operating losses during the period of Federal operation and the six months' guarantee period, after relinquishment of control and the payment of the deficit of the short lines, amounted to $1,696,000,000. In his report the Director-General, after detailing the taking over of the railroads on Dec. 31 1927, said in part:

When the property was returned to its owners, claims were presented by the carriers, represented largely by the items of unpaid compensation, undermaintenance of way and equipment, material and supplies and depreciation, in the sum of $1,014,402,446 72. The Railroad Administration set up claims against the railroads, largely for excess expenditures for maintenance, in the sum of $440,353,715 08.

Congress directed the President, through his agent, as soon as practicable to settle and adjust these and all other claims incident to Federal control. Every one of the claims of the carriers whose property was taken over has been adjusted. The creditor roads were paid $243,652,196 91. There was collected from the debtor roads $195,272,295 17. The balance paid by the Government was $48,379,901 74, or less than 5% of the claims as originally presented.

There are perhaps two outstanding features in the adjustment: It was made without litigation, and well within the appropriation originally made by Congress for this purpose.

The liquidation has involved the handling of large sums. As an outgrowth of Federal control the Government took definitive obligations of the railroads for advances, funding of additions and betterments, balance due on settlement, and the like, aggregating $629,241,250. Of this amount there has been collected, or disposed of at par, $495,705,450. This amount has been returned to the United States Treasury.

The Railroad Administration for a number of years has been returning large sums to the treasury. For the eleven months ended Nov. 30 1925 the receipts in excess of expenditures were $50,690,499. (V. 121, p. 3082.)

United States Railroad Labor Board Abolished—President Appoints Board of Mediation.

President Coolidge on May 20 1926 signed the Watson-Parker bill, which abolishes the Railroad Labor Board. See text of bill in the "Commercial & Financial Chronicle" of May 29, 1926, pp. 3038 to 3040. A board of mediation, composed of five members (Samuel E. Winslow, Chairman; Pat M. Neff, Edwin P. Morrow, G. Wallace W. Hanger and John Williams), was appointed by President Coolidge to settle disputes between employees and the carriers. John Marrinan is Secretary of the Board (V. 123, p. 2218; V. 124, p. 879).

What the average family speaks of as "Light" you'd speak of as "Gloom"

BUEN ● Imagine attempting to run living room for five hours and you'll use as much current as the average wired home consumes in an entire day for every purpose. At its present rate of increasing demand, the average American family would have to stay up until midnight for the chief of it to fall the living room fully lighted, according to good lighting standards.

There's a vast difference between having electricity and having enough electricity, and that explains the hard and fierce struggle most promising field for immediate growth.

In 1925, the "domestic load" was 5,600,000,000 kilowatt-hours. If every home within reach of central station lines were adequately lighted and generously appliances (including refrigerator and range), this figure would jump to 98,000,000,000 kilowatt-hours. This amount is almost 100 per cent greater than the total of kilowatt-hours generated for electric light, power and heat in homes, factories, and on railroads and farms combined.

Furnishing lamps and appliances to the consumer, making, generating and transmitting equipment for the power company, Westinghouse will have an expanding place in the future growth of the electrical industry.
